

Global Campaign Manager - Communities

Location: London

Permanent

Salary: £34,000 to £38,000 per annum

Closing date: Open until filled

Global Campaign Manager – Communities

This is a unique and exciting opportunity to be part of an International NGO working to help eliminate rabies globally by 2030. To do this, you will use public mobilisation, policy and advocacy initiatives to drive changes in government policy on canine animal welfare as well as support our team to work with corporations in the Pharmaceutical, veterinarian, dog food manufacturers and dog registration industry to drive through the initiative.

Part of a busy and dynamic team, you will project manage the implementation and delivery of the Animals in Communities global campaign. You will communicate our positions and messages to external audiences including public fora, the media, political, economic and other actors. You will work closely UN Organisations, the European Union and others such as the World Health Organisation to influence policy to achieve our campaign promise that will help eliminate rabies by 2030.

You will work with all our offices globally to develop inspiring and innovative projects which realise the campaign strategy. Important will be the ability to collaborate with colleagues and guarantee project goals are delivered in a timely and effective manner. This will mean you will travel globally in this position as this is a truly global campaign.

In addition, you will act as a central point of contact for organisational activity and provide co-ordination and support to global offices to ensure consistent and efficient project execution. We will also look to you to develop relationships with a network of key external stakeholders and build links to further our cause.

This is a fantastic opportunity to not only positively affect canine animal welfare worldwide but also positively effect the humanitarian efforts to eliminate rabies.

Global Campaign Manager – Communities

- Experience working with governments and public organisations to influence policy change
- An experienced and highly motivated campaigner with a record of managing projects to deliver specific outcomes
- Experience in the design and delivery of impactful campaigns
- An effective project manager, who is comfortable working with multiple stakeholders, controlling budgets and meeting deadlines.
- An excellent communicator with first class analytical and decision-making skills too.
- Although management is not part of this position you will be an effective leader able to support campaign managers based in country offices to deliver this campaign.
- Knowledge of animal welfare or conservation and environmental issues would be an advantage but not essential.

How to Apply

If you want to be part of our dynamic organisation and help us move the world to protect animals then please send us a copy of your CV, salary expectation and cover/motivation letters addressing your skills and experience relative to the role to recruitment@worldanimalprotection.org

Due to the large volume of applications that we receive, we will not be acknowledging receipt of your application. If you do not hear from us within 3 weeks of the closing date, please consider your application as unsuccessful.

World Animal Protection is an equal opportunity employer and committed to providing equal opportunities for everyone regardless of their background.

The successful candidate must have permission to work in the position location.

Who are we?

We are World Animal Protection.

For over 50 years we have moved the world to protect animals.

We protect animals because we believe a sustainable future for the planet can only be achieved if both animals and people are part of the solution.

We stop the exploitation of wild animals for entertainment and profit. We protect pets and working animals in communities across the globe. We campaign for better farm animal welfare and fight against factory farming. We also help animals when disaster strikes.

Our vision is a world where animals live free from suffering. We are working to help people to see how important animals are to all of us.

We are determined to influence decision makers to put animals on the global agenda and inspire people to change animals' lives for the better. Today we're working on projects to end animal suffering by helping governments and communities to protect and care for their animals.

Why Work for us?

We move the world to protect animals globally but there are many other reasons to join our organisation. We are a truly global organisation with offices in Australia, Brazil, Canada, China, Costa Rica, Denmark, India, Kenya, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Sweden, Thailand, UK and USA. We employ over 380 people globally covering campaigns, media, fundraising, operations, finance, administration and human resources.

As well as competitive employee benefits we want our employees to grow with us and build their careers within World Animal Protection and therefore encourage internal applications. We have a strong track record of offering existing staff promotions as well as secondments and position changes within the organisation.