

Volunteering opportunity – Public Affairs

Location: London

Closing date: 24th February 2019

Interview dates: 4th and 5th March

World Animal Protection is working hard to create policy change to improve animal welfare worldwide. Our UK country office is currently experiencing a high volume of work in the public affairs team and as a result we are offering an unpaid volunteer opportunity to assist in a number of areas such as political stakeholder mapping, event logistics, political communicates, general administration and minute taking. The total length of this volunteer assignment is expected to be 12 weeks.

Volunteers will have the opportunity to experience how NGO's lobby to create positive change for animals. Helping an experienced Public Affairs Advisor, you will get a chance to understand the political landscape in the UK, be a part of some key project work and take away knowledge of animal welfare legislation.

Please note that this is an unpaid volunteer placement however we will cover the cost of transport and other relevant expenses.

To apply to this opportunity please send in your motivation letter detailing your relevant experience to recruitment@worldanimalprotection.org
